FEATURED SPEAKERS

Rena Hymans

Ms. Hymans has been a lawyer since 1997. Rena obtained her Bachelor of Science Degree from Chadron State College in 1994 with a major in criminal justice and a minor in business administration. She earned her Juris Doctorate degree from the University of South Dakota School of Law in 1997 and was admitted to the South Dakota State Bar in 1997. In 2004, she began her position as an associate with the Morman Law Firm in Sturgis, expanding her areas of practice into criminal defense, family law and other general practice matters. In 2007, Rena left the Morman Law Firm and started her own solo practice, Rena M. Hyman, P.C., based out of Sturgis.

David Wolfskill

Mr. Wolfskill is a retired law enforcement officer and works as a private investigator. Dave graduated from Sundance High School in Wyoming. He has worked for both the Crook County Sheriff and the Laramie County Sheriff. He has worked as a private investigator for more than 14 years, providing services in the area of criminal defense, juvenile delinquency, accident investigation, and others.

William "Pat" McManus

Mr. McManus is a private investigator with Allegiance Investigators in Sioux Falls, which he co-owns with his wife, Kathy. Together they have combined experience of more than 40 years in the investigative and surveillance industry. Pat specializes in locating missing persons and assets, skip tracing, fraud, employee and witness interviews as well as marital and other domestic matters.

Eric Nies

Mr. Nies is an attorney with the firm of Nies & Karras in Spearfish. He is a graduate of Spearfish High School, as well as the University of South Dakota. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in 2001 and his Juris Doctorate in 2005. He graduated from the University of Alabama Law School in 2016. His practice areas include business and estate planning, probate, real estate, banking law, corporate law, personal injury and family law. Eric is a member of both the State Bar of South Dakota and the State Bar of Wyoming.

Charles Abourezk

Charles Abourezk is a trial lawyer, documentary film maker, group psychology/group dynamics trainer, and political campaign consultant from South Dakota. He is a member of the South Dakota Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights. Charles currently has two roles, as the Chief Judge of the Oglala Sioux Tribal Courts (trial court) and he is current Chief Justice of the Rosebud Sioux Tribe Supreme Court (appellate court) and a retired Justice of the Supreme Court of the Oglala Sioux Nation (1994-1998). He is completing a soon-to-be published book on jury selection, entitled Seeking the Truth: The Art & Science of Jury Selection, and has specialized in the application of psychology, psychodrama, and group dynamics to trial practice.

Wallace Trembath III

Wallace Trembath has been an attorney with the City of Casper for 12 years specializing in real estate, major contracts and franchising. He received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science from the University of Colorado and his Doctor of Jurisprudence from the University of Oregon. He is married to Wendy Trembath, the most beautiful and talented paralegal in the world, and enjoys skiing, scuba diving, racquetball and whitewater kayaking.

Shannon Rezanina, ACP

Shannon Rezanina is a 2005 graduate from the Casper College Paralegal Program. She received her paralegal certification in 2006. She has also earned several advanced certifications including Discovery, Trial Practice, Personal Injury, and Individual Medical Liability. Shannon currently works at Williams, Porter, Day & Neville, in Casper, and has been employed there for 12 years. Shannon currently serves as the NALA Liaison for the Legal Assistants of Wyoming, and is also on the CEC (Continuing Education Committee) with the National Association of Legal Assistants (NALA).
